Xactitude'25 Chief Guest Introduction

A very good morning to one and all present here. It is my, honour, to introduce our esteemed chief guest for today, Mr. Aditya Prakash, the visionary founder and CEO of NuageSync. Under his leadership, NuageSync has empowered several organizations to streamline operations through automation, integration, and transformation.

With over a decade of experience in enterprise API integrations, Software solutions, and business process management, Mr. Aditya has successfully led global projects and driven innovation in fields such as e-commerce, ERP, and CRM systems.

His journey includes impactful roles at PXP Financial and Celigo, where he delivered client-centric solutions and championed efficiency. A firm believer in the power of collaboration and innovation, he continues to inspire others through his remarkable achievements.

It is with great pleasure that I invite Mr. Aditya Prakash to inspire us with his words.
